TAME YOUR INNER CRITIC; LIBERATE YOUR AUTHENTIC VOICE

Whether they are experienced business leaders, emerging leaders, or entrepreneurs, for too many women the fear of other people's opinions and "not getting it right" when they speak keeps them paralyzed and constantly second-guessing themselves. Kim Boudreau Smith is a master at showing women how to turn down the volume on their inner critic (or, as she calls it, "Hag in the Attic") so they can accelerate their impact and leadership.

In this presentation, audience members will learn how to:

- Confront imposter syndrome by changing their self-talk from critical to compassionate
- Release perfectionism by shifting from a fixed to growth mindset
- Detach from other's opinions and pursue visibility opportunities where they can shine
- Remove the "could-haves, should-haves, and would-haves" from their vocabulary and replace it with bold and confident (empowering) language
- Drop the "shoulder-padded" masculine-driven stance and embrace their bold feminine leadership

CLAIM YOUR BOLDNESS AS A SPEAKER; TURN SELF-DOUBT INTO YOUR SPEAKING SUPERPOWER

If you are a coach, consultant, or service-driven entrepreneur, you likely know that visibility is key if you want to grow your leads and client base. Yet, if you're like most female entrepreneurs, something is holding you back from consistently getting on live or virtual stages to share your message with those who need to hear it. Kim Boudreau Smith knows how to show female entrepreneurs how to turn their self-doubt into their speaking power as they clarify why they want to be speaking, who their ideal audiences are, and the big idea at the center of their work.

In this presentation, audience members will learn how to:

- Identify and clear limiting beliefs that are getting in their way of using speaking to grow their businesses
- Speak boldly as they use clear communication, adopt powerful body language, and tell vulnerable stories
- Connect with ideal clients through speaking and enroll them into business offerings

ABOUT KIM BOUDREAU SMITH

Kim Boudreau Smith is passionate about helping women find (and use!) their bold voices. A born entrepreneur with 25-years as a leader in Corporate America, Kim rocks at showing female entrepreneurs and high-performing professional women how to develop their speaking confidence, level up their presence, and increase their profitability. Kim's raw, slightly rebellious, and always riveting speaking style makes her a go-to speaker for women's business and professional conferences, associations, employee resource groups, and podcasts.

Prior to launching her career as a professional speaker and speaking coach, Kim was the head of a radio station and for 25+ years ran a thriving fitness business. Kim is also the co-author of several Amazon bestselling books, and you can connect with Kim and grab her 5 Ways to Stop Self-Sabotaging Your Bold Voice guide at kimbsmith.com.

“Kim wowed us with her knowledge and charisma when she introduced us to "the hag in the attic" (inner critic). She taught us how to identify and manage our inner critic - "the hag" with useful tools and methods. She comically described her hag by name and her personality and invited us to do the same. Kim is very energetic and engaging. We highly recommend Kim for your event!”
