“Kim was such an incredible support during my preparation for a big talk. Her knowledge of the art of giving a talk was so helpful. Your power stance. Eye gaze. Intentional pauses. All invaluable little insights that help transform a talk. And finally, feeling confident in what you are delivering is so important, and Kim knows how to get you there.”

-Sinead

“Working with Kim was transformational! She took a process that can be uncomfortable and made it fun and engaging. Kim covered all the necessary aspects of being a good speaker in a hands-on way, making me feel extremely prepared for my speaking engagement. Kim also worked with me on taming imposter syndrome and boosting my confidence, an integral part of being a great speaker. I recommend Kim to any individual or team wanting to find their bold voice!”
